

Timeless

in Bedford County MAGAZINE

Timeless in Bedford County Magazine is a free, quarterly publication that offers insightful information about senior trends of today, including health and wellness, assisted living and home care options, financial, legal, local government, senior services, local community projects, a game page and more.

In addition to the programs, services and products our local businesses provide, our goal is to allow you a more in-depth conversation with our readers by matching all advertisement with equal space in editorial content. It's a great opportunity to provide tips and advice to our seniors and their caregivers from the specialty businesses that offer these services within our area.

Timeless in Bedford County Magazine is distributed throughout our region at sponsor locations, health and wellness facilities, senior centers, businesses, retail and specialty stores, direct mail, Headline Marketing and Communications website: headlinemc.com, or our Timeless in Bedford County Facebook Page: facebook.com/HMCTimeless

Contact us today to find out how to expand your businesses potential through sponsorship of a full, half or quarter page ad that we can design for you at no additional cost or use your camera-ready artwork.
